The best AQPS jumpers of 2016

Once again 2016 was a bumper year for the AQPS at home and abroad. The old French guard has welcomed a new valuable addition with Grand Prix d'Automne Hurdle winner Alex de Larredya while Vinga once again dominated the two main cross-country chases in France. In Britain and Ireland, the likes of Vroum Vroum Mag, Un de Sceaux and the promising Défi du Seuil thrive on their way to Cheltenham and Aintree. The new wave also looks very promising and while some of the best AQPS novices have been exported to Britain and Ireland, a few remain in their backyard to take over the rich Auteuil program. ## BEST AQPS IN FLAT RACES

New AQPS flat group races prove their point

For the first time, 13 flat AQPS races have been awarded Group status by France Galop last year. Those are the classic races that have been used for years by AQPS breeders and owners to select the very best of every generation before they're turned to the jumps program. Most AQPS champions and best broodmares took part of them before hitting the headlines at Auteuil or Cheltenham. The new status allows the AQPS selection process to gain International recognition. The winners of the 2 AQPS new Gr1s, Prix de Craon (AQPS Arc) and Prix Jacques de Vienne (AQPS Derby), namely Chambard (Gris de Gris) and Délirant (Khalkevi), were exported to Britain. Such races are equivalent to the bumpers awarded Group 1 status in Britain and Ireland.

Yet, most of these AQPS flat races were created to give females an opportunity to prove their ability before entering stud without taking chances over the jumps, giving their breeders a safe return home. The best mares were awarded a fast pass to the best sires then owned and managed by the National Stud. Outstanding jumpers such as Vroum Vroum Mag, Notre Père, Silviniaco Conti, Ucello Conti, Alex de Larredya, Saint Are, Rameur, Baraka de Thaïx, Rhialco and Terre Neuve, to list a few, are all out of mares who excelled in these AQPS flat Group races.

Some also managed to reach the top of the jumps' list after starting off over the flat, like Blue Dragon, Questarabad, Rendons Grâce and Osana.

2016-2017 SEASON ACROSS THE CHANNEL

More AQPS join jumping stars in UK and Ireland

This Winter, AQPS owners in Britain and Ireland got many good results at the top of the jumping brigade, warming up nicely for the Cheltenham, Aintree and Punchestown meetings.

VROUM VROUM MAG (Voix du Nord, f.2009)

Bred in Nièvre by Antoine-Audoin and Antonia Maggiar and trained by Willie Mullins, the versatile mare won 2016 Cheltenham Mares' Hurdle (Gr1) over 2 ½ miles and Punchestown Champion Hurdle (Gr1) over 2 miles in 2016. She started the new season with a 2nd place in Hatton's Grace Hurdle (Gr1), won the Christmas Hurdle (Gr1) over 3 miles at Leopardstown, then over an extended 2-miles trip in the Doncaster Mares' Hurdle (Gr1). She can do anything !

Vroom Vroom Mag

UN DE SCEAUX (Denham Red, f. 2008)

Bred by Haras de la Rousselière and Monique Choveau in Maine-et-Loire, now trained by Willie Mullins for Edward O'Connell, the successful two-miler crossed the Irish sea to take a second Clarence House Chase (Gr1) in a row, at Cheltenham this time, jumping to perfection. He could go to either the Ryanair Chase (Gr1) or the Queen Mother Champion Chase (Gr1) at the Festival.

BRISTOL DE MAI (Saddler Maker, f.2011)

He made it look easy to win the Peter Marsh Chase (Gr2) at Haydock with 22 lengths to spare. Aged only 6, he surely looks like one to follow for the years to come, and there's plenty to look forward to for owners Simon Munir and Isaac Souede. Now under the care of Nigel Twiston-Davies, Bristol de Mai was bred in Maine-et-Loire by Jean-Yves Touzaint, father of the Olympic rider Nicolas, himself a former eventing champion.

SILVINIACO CONTI (Dom Alco, f.2006)

At 11, the warrior bred by Patrick Joubert in Allier and trained by Paul Nicholls for Chris Giles and Sullivan Bloodstock still delivers. 3rd in a splendid renewal of the King George VI Chase (Gr1) at Kempton, he went on to finish 4th in the Cotswold Chase (Gr2) at Cheltenham, where he usually underperformed though.

UCELLO CONTI (Martaline, f.2008)

6th to Rule the World in the 2016 Grand National, the Patrick Joubert-bred brother to Silviaco Conti went 4th in the Becher Chase (Gr3) since then and has been all the talk since the weights of the 2017 Grand National were released. Trainer Gordon Elliott seems to rely on him for another go at the Merseyside extravaganza.

VIEUX LION ROUGE (Sabiango, f. 2009)

Bred by François-Marie Cottin in Normandy, owned by Caroline Tisdall and John Gent, trained by David Pipe, he won 10 of his 20 races in Britain so far, including the Becher Chase (Gr3) and the Haydock National Trial (Gr3). He was 7th in last year's Grand National and looks like another nice prospect for the race. His dam Indecise (Cyborg) ran in 3 chases and fell in every one of them but gave 4 winners over obstacles including Reflexion (Discover d'Auteuil), who won the Prix Hardatit Hurdle (L) at Auteuil.

DÉFI DU SEUIL (Voix du Nord, f. 2013)

5 for 5 in Britain, the 4yo bred by Catherine Boudot (Saône-et-Loire), widow of trainer Marc Boudot and mother of French ace Pierre-Charles Boudot, won the Future Champions Final Juvenile Hurdle (Gr1) at Chepstow and two different Triumph Hurdle Trials (Gr2) at Cheltenham. Seeing such a young horse galloping away in the infamous final climb of Prestbury Park has surely left a huge impression. Before joining the McManus string at Philip Hobbs' yard, Défi du Seuil was trained in France by Emmanuel Clayeux for the

Un de Sceaux

Papot family. He's out of Quarvine du Seuil (Lavirco), from the same family that of good winners Catamaran du Seuil (Network), Tulipe du Seuil (Equerry) and Orore Tennise (Apple Tree).

BUVEUR D'AIR (Crillon, f. 2011)

Bred by Gérard Ferté in Cher, he won the Top Novices' Hurdle (Gr1) at Aintree last season. This winter, he joined the chasing novices and obliged twice at Haydock and Warwick. He is expected in one of Group 1 for steeplechase novice Cheltenham Festival. Nicky Henderson trains him for J.P. McManus and he switched back the 6yo to hurdles in the Contenders Hurdle (L) at sandown, which could point him to the Champion Hurdle at the Festival.

VALSEUR LIDO (Anzillero, f. 2009)

A champion novice chaser last term, he left Willie Mullins to join Henry de Bromhead and scored for his new yard in the Champion Chase (Gr1) at Down Royal before getting beat 4th in the Lexus Chase (Gr1). Bred by Michel and Nelly Contignon in Meurthe-et-Moselle, he's unfortunately reported to be on the sidelines for the moment.

BLEU ET ROUGE (Charming Groom, f.2011)

Pierre and Nelly de la Guillonnière's Haras de la Rousselière, joint breeder of Un de Sceaux, is also on this one, winner of the 2016 Novice Hurdle (Gr1)

Bred to Jump

Buveur d'Air

at Leopardstown for J.P McManus and trainer Willie Mullins. He started this season with a win for his chasing debut but got let down by his jumping since, although he finished a distant 4th in the Flogas Novices Chase (Gr1) lately.

CAPITAINE (Montmartre, f.2012)

Bred at Nicolas de Lageneste's Haras de Saint-Voir, a sound purveyor of jumping stars on both sides of the Channel, the Paul Nicholls-trained 5yo never finished worse than second. He won the Kennel Gate Hurdle (Gr2) at Ascot before finishing 2nd to the impressive Finian's Oscar in the Tolworth Novices'Hurdle (Gr1) at Sandown. Owners Martin Broughton and Friends (2) are probably eager to aim him at the Supreme Novices'Hurdle (Gr1) for the Festival.

VICENTE (Dom Alco, f. 2009)

Bred by Thierry Cyprès and Jean-François Naudin in Nièvre, he's now with Paul Nicholls and won the Scottish Grand National (Gr3) at Ayr in 2016 for Ian Fogg and a great AQPS connoisseur, John Hales, who surely keeps very fond memories of the great Neptune Collonges (Dom Alco), 2012 Grand National winner.

URGENT DE GRÉGAINE (Truth or Dare, f.2008)

Emmanuel Clayeux won his first race in Britain thanks to him, and on Cheltenham Festival's Trial's Day no less, in Glenfarclas Cross Country Handicap Chase. Urgent practiced hunting in France during the winter and had no more entries in his homecountry. He could now participate in the second stage of the 2017 Crystal Cup, at the Cheltenham Festival.

MORE TO COME !

Last season, Bacardys (Coastal Path) showed some ability by winning Aintree's Champion Bumper (Gr2) after a 3rd at Cheltenham. Bred by Eric Vagne and José Louis Da Silva, he fell first time out over hurdles but duly obliged twice at Leopardstown since then, lately in a Gr1 Novice Hurdle, giving trainer Willie Mullins he'd be able to go further than that 2m2f trip.

Bacardys

Bred in Nièvre by Karine Perreau, Avenir d'Une Vie (Lavirco) did well last season in the top bumpers and then joined the Giggingstown exodus to Henry de Bromhead, who switched him to hurdles. «Avenir» won his first jumping test at Fairyhouse by 5 lengths and who knows what's next ! His dam is a sister to Sous les Cieux (Robin des Champs), winner of the Royal Bond Novice Hurdle (Gr1) and 4 times Gr1 placed. Clan of the Obeaux (Kapgarde), bred by the Devilder family, made a splash in the Berkshire Novices' Chase (Gr2) in November at Newbury when he beat Virgilio (Denham red) by 5 lengths, but he failed to reproduce that effort since then.

Virgilio however, finished 2nd again at Kempton on Boxing Day in the Kauto Star Novices' Chase (Gr1). One of his joint owners is none other than David Futter (Yorton Farm). Bred by François-Marie Cottin in Normandy, he's out of Liesse de Marbeuf (Cyborg), a Prix André Michel Hurdle (Gr3) 3rd at Auteuil.

Château Conti (Vendangeur) races for Un de Sceaux's owner Edward O'Connell and won his first hurdle race at Cork, beating 2016 AQPS flat champion Canelie (Gentlewave), now owned by John-Patrick McManus, by more than 7 lengths. This could lead him to the Supreme Novices'Hurdle (Gr1) or the Baring Bingham Novices'Hurdle (Gr1) at the Festival.

D'Armaillé family's Baron Alco (Dom Alco) has probably relished his switch to the fences since he won twice and was placed three times in that many races since the beginning of the season. Latest news: he finished 2nd in the Scilly Isles Novices' Chase (Gr1) at Sandown. He's out of Paula (Network), 2nd in Prix de l'Avenir (AQPS Gr3), dam of Anastasia (Lavirco), winner of 5 races and 3rd in Prix Glorieuse (AQPS Gr2) and Prix Chloris (AQPS Gr2).

J.P McManus' Anibale Fly (Assessor) won his first Group in the Novice Chase (Gr3) at Naas after being placed twice in Gr1s in Ireland over hurdles and fences. His dam is a sister to Petit Robin (Robin des Prés), twice a chase winner at Pau. Exported to Britain, that Petit Robin.

After a brilliant victory over Clonmel's hurdles, Crack Mome (Spanish Moon) finished second in the Moscow Flyer Novice Hurdle (Gr2) in Punchestown in January after going too freely. Bred by Bernadette and Alexandre Deschère at Le Lion of Angers, he's a good prospect to follow.

Another one to watch in the next few weeks is Vroum Vroum Mag's half brother Dandy Mag (Special Kaldoun), impressive for his debut at Gowran Park for trainer Willie Mullins. ■

MERCI, SPRINTER SACRÉ !

Sprinter Sacré (Network) retired in Autumn 2016. One of his leg was causing some trouble and wisely, his connections opted for a full and happy retirement. After the heart condition he overcame, that was a challenge too far. He'd already managed an unthinkable come back, winning a 2nd Queen Mother Champion Chase (Gr1) that prompted one of the loudest ovations ever at the Festival. He finished the season with another victory in the Sandown Celebration Chase (Gr1). Sprinter Sacré was bred by Christopher Masle in Nièvre, owned by Caroline Mould and trained by Nicky Henderson, he won 14 chases out of 18 and found a place in the heart of every National Hunt fan in the British Isles.
